Support for InterWiki links

(since 0.10)

Definition

An InterWiki link can be used for referring to a Wiki page located in another Wiki system, and by extension, to any object located in any other Web application, provided a simple URL mapping can be done.

At the extreme, InterWiki prefixes can even be used to simply introduce links to new protocols, such as `tsvn:` used by TortoiseSvn?.

Link Syntax

```
<target_wiki>(:<identifier>)+

The link is composed by the targeted Wiki (or system) name, followed by a colon (e.g. `MeatBall:`), followed by a page specification in the target. Note that, as for InterTrac prefixes, InterWiki prefixes are case insensitive.

The target Wiki URL is looked up in the InterMapTxt wiki page, modelled after `MeatBall:InterMapTxt`.

In addition to traditional InterWiki links, where the target is simply appended to the URL, Trac supports parametric InterWiki URLs: identifiers `$1`, `$2`, ... in the URL will be replaced by corresponding arguments. The argument list is formed by splitting the page identifier using the ":" separator.

Examples

If the following is an excerpt of the InterMapTxt page:

```
erMapTxt =
s is the place for defining InterWiki prefixes ==

ntly active prefixes: [[InterWiki]]

dition, an optional comment is allowed after the mapping.

Then,

- `MoinMoin:InterWikiMap` should be rendered as `MoinMoin:InterWikiMap` and the title for that link would be "InterWikiMap in MoinMoin"
